BOOKS

The following selection of books gives excellent information and ideas for ministry, evangelism, Ministry Evangelism and Servant Evangelism.

A. K. A. Lost: Discovering Ways to Connect With the People Jesus Misses the Most by Jim Henderson, Water Brook Press, New York, NY, 2005

The subtitle gives the message of the book -- how to make real connections with people known as "lost".

Becoming a Contagious Christian by Bill Hyles, Zondervan Publishing Co, New York, NY (n.d.)

The subtitle gives the book's presentation: "Communicating Your Faith In a Style that Fits You"

Called to Be God's Leader: Lessons from the Life of Joshua by Henry Blackaby and Richard Blackaby, Thomas Nelson, Inc., Nashville, TN, 2004.

God prepares His people for spiritual leadership. Lessons are clearly presented and learned from the life of Joshua.

Churches That Make a Difference by Ronald J. Sider, Philip N. Olson and Heidi Rolland Unruh, Baker Books, Grand Rapids, MI, 2002.

A book about reaching your community with the Good News and helping congregations develop a more Biblical, effective and dynamic ministry.

Concentric Circles of Concern by W. Oscar Thompson, Claude V. King, Oscar W. Thompson, Jr., and Carolyn Thompson Ritzmann, Broadman & Holman Publishers, Nashville, TN 1981.

This is a classic. See how to spread the Good News by developing friendships – family and friends must be reached first.

Conspiracy of Kindness by Steve Sjorgren, Servant Publications, Ann Arbor, MI, 1993.

God loves unbelievers. You will see how they can be won to faith in Jesus Christ through acts of kindness.

Culture Shift: Transforming Your Church from the Inside Out by Robert Lewis and Wayne Cordeiro, Jossey Bass Publishers, San Francisco, CA, 2005.

A church cultural transformation is needed for real church transformation.

Cup of Water, Bread of Life: Inspiring Stories about Overcoming Lopsided Christianity by Ronald J. Sider, Zondervan Publishing Co., New York, 1994.

The author shows how to bridge the gap between evangelism and ministry.

Danger Habit: How to Grow Your Love of Risk into Life Changing Faith by Mike Barrett, Multnomah Publishers Int., 2007.

The author explores the mind set of born radicals against the backdrop of Biblical truth.

Evangelism Outside The Box: New Ways to Help People Experience the Good News by Rick Richardson, InterVarsity Press, Downers Groves, IL, 2000.

The book gives new ways for people to experience the Good News.

Further Still by Beth Moore, Broadman & Holman Publishers, Nashville, TN, 2004.

The author is a Bible teacher and convention speaker. She shares her daily walk with the Lord and God at work in her life.

Gentle Persuasion: Creative Ways to Introduce Your Friends to Christ by Joseph C. Aldrich, Multnomah Publishers, Inc, Sisters, OR, 1988.

The author helps make evangelism fun as he applies the account of Jesus sending out the seventy disciples into today's world.

How to Talk About Jesus Without Freaking Out by Karen and Jim Covell, Multnomah Publishers, Inc., Sisters, OR, 2002.

Suggestions are offered to help those who find it hard to talk to someone about Jesus.

I Hate Witnessing: A Handbook for Effective Christian Communication by Dick Innes, ACTS Communications.

The author has captured the feeling of many Christians and presents how to deal with non-believers' felt needs in a way that is free of "Christianese"

Just Walk Across the Room: Simple Steps Pointing People to Faith by Bill Hybels, Zondervan, NY, 2006.

The writer encourages and equips the reader to routinely initiate spiritual conversations with those who don't know Christ.

Leadership by the Book: Tools to Transform Your Workplace by Ken Blanchard, Bill Hybels and Phil Hodges, William Morrow and Company, Inc., New York, NY, 1999.

What legacy does the servant leader leave? Servant leader values and practices are presented which are modeled after Jesus.

Leadership Smarts: Inspiration and Wisdom from the Heart of a Leader by Ken Blanchard, Cook Communications, n.d.

The author presents the meaning of a servant's heart.

Lifestyle Evangelism: Crossing Traditional Boundaries to Reach the Unbelieving World by Joseph C. Aldrich and Haddon W. Robinson, Multnomah Publishers, Inc., Sisters, OR, 1981.

Christians are encouraged to use their gifts to reach people in non-traditional ways.

Lifestyle Evangelism: Learning to Open Your Life to Those Around You by Joseph C. Aldrich, Multnomah Publishers, Inc, Sisters, OR, 1994.

Believers are encouraged to live a lifestyle that is genuine before non-believers.

Meeting Needs—Sharing Christ: Ministry Evangelism in Today's New Testament Church by Donald A. Atkinson and Charles L. Roesel, Life Way Press, Nashville, TN, 1995.

Ministries are the heart beat of FBC, Leesburg, FL. The authors present "Ideas for Ministry" (Appendix 2) and "Resources for Ministry" (Appendix 3) which are valuable resources in themselves.

Ministries of Mercy: The Call of the Jericho Road by Timothy J. Keller, Zondervan, Philadelphia, PA., 1997.

The author presents community needs and how the church can help meet needs through ministry.

Neighborhood Outreach, Group Publishing, Inc., Loveland, CO, 2007.

Community builders for your neighborhood to bring your neighborhood together.

Next Door Savior: Near Enough to Touch, Strong Enough to Trust by Max Lucado, W. Publishing Group, Nashville, TN, 2003.

The author presents a fresh look at Jesus . . . as approachable as a next-door neighbor, yet holy enough to redeem mankind.

101 Ways to Help People in Need by Steve and Janie Sjorgren, NavPress, 2002.

Here are 101 needs all around the church waiting to be met in ministry.

Organize to Evangelize: A Manual for Church Growth, Larry L. Lewis, Broadman Press: Nashville, TN, 1988.

The sub-title reveals the author's theme – a manual for organizing the church for growth and evangelism.

Out of the Saltshaker and Into the World, Rebecca Pippert, Inter Varsity Press, Downers Grove, IL, 1979.

This is one of the best presentations of Ministry Evangelism as a Christian's lifestyle.

Out of Their Faces and Into Their Shoes: How to Understand Spiritually Lost People and Give Them Directions to God by John Kramp, Broadman and Holman Publications, Nashville, TN, 1995.

The author reveals life from the position of someone who is lost and identifies 24 Laws of Lostology.

Outreach Ministry in the 21st Century, Group Publishing, Loveland, CO.

An encyclopedia of 200 practical outreach ideas for youth, long-term and mission ideas and ways to make the church visible to the community.

Seeing Beyond Church Walls: Action Plans for Touching Your Community by Steve Sjogren, Stephen L. Ayers, and Bob Logan, Frank Amato Publishers, 2001.

Action plans for touching and penetrating the church community are presented in order to communicate the love of Jesus Christ.

Servant Leader: Transferring Your Heart, Head, Hands & Habits by Ken Blanchard and Phil Hodges, Nelson Word Publishing Group, Nashville, TN, 2002.

A devotional book written especially for leaders in the business community. The authors' business servant characteristics are easily adapted to the Servant Evangelism leader.

Simple Church: Returning to God's Process for Making Disciples by Thom S Rainer and Eric Geiger, Broadman and Holman Publishers, Nashville, TN, 2006.

A call for Christians to return to the simple Gospel-sharing methods of Jesus

Spiritual Leadership: Moving People On To God's Agenda by Henry and Richard Blackaby, Broadman & Holman Publishers, Nashville, TN, 2001.

God's design for spiritual leadership is clearly presented.

TEAM Evangelism by Larry Gilbert, Church Growth Institute.

Strengths of life-style and confrontational evangelism are given.

The Church of Irresistible Influence by Robert Lewis, Gospel Light Publishing, Ventura, CA, 2003.

The author shows how the church can be an influence in the neighborhood and community by bridge building.

The Complete Evangelism Guidebook: Expert Advice on Reaching Others for Christ by Luis Polau, forward by Scott Dawson.

The book has most anything someone would want to know about evangelism.

The Equipping Church: Serving Together to Transform Lives by Sue Mallory, Zondervan, Grand Rapids, MI, 2001.

The author presents the vision of the church and shows the church as a place where believers find the opportunity for creative ministry.

The Externally Focused Church by Rick Rusaw and Eric Swanson, Group Publishing, Inc., Loveland, CO, 2004.

This is one of the best presentations for ministry beyond church walls. The authors show how through servanthood Christians earn the right to be heard, how churches are changing relationships between church and communities.

The Heart of Mentoring: 10 Proven Principles For Developing People to Their Fullest Potential by Robert J. Tamasy and David A. Stoddard, NavPress, 2003.

Life-changing principles are presented for mentoring in ministry relationships.

The Man God Uses: Moved From the Ordinary to the Extraordinary by Henry and Tom Blackaby, Broadman & Holman Publishers, Nashville, TN, 1999.

How God's presence affects all areas of one's life is revealed in the subtle – moving from the "Ordinary to the Extraordinary".

The Master's Plan for Making Disciples: Every Christian an Effective Witness Through An Enabling Church by Win Arn and Charles Arn, Baker Press, Grand Rapids, MI, 1997.

The idea of an "extended family" is presented for personal evangelism.

The Purpose Driven Life by Rick Warren, Zondervan Publishing Co., Grand Rapids, MI, 2002.

This is a 40-day spiritual journal that will change your life . . . developing a servant heart and help you understand God's plan for your life.

The Seven Last Words of the Church: We've Not Done It That Way Before by Ralph W. Neighbor, Jr., Broadman and Holman Publishers, Nashville, TN, 1973.

The title is never out-of-date as a challenge to the church to not get to the place it will not give attention to change in "how to do church" and yet present the Gospel in a clear way for people's understanding.

The Volunteer Revolution: Understanding the Power of Everybody by Bill Hybels, Zondervan, 2004.

Total Church Life: How to Be A First Century Church by Darrell W. Robinson, Broadman Press: Nashville, TN, rev. 1992.

A manual for ministry of living principles for a healthy church.

Witnessing Where You Are by Arthur Blessitt, Vision House: Ventura, CA 1998.
